

Trainer Certification Course:
How to Present “Training from the BACK of the Room!”

This 1-day trainer certification course is designed to give you the professional training skills you need to present Sharon Bowman's 2-day train-the-trainer program “Training from the BACK of the Room” (TBR). Along with individualized instruction, guided practice, instructor and peer coaching and feedback, you will receive a complete facilitator's guide and slide set for the 2-day train-the-trainer workshop. Plus, you'll receive a year of free coaching from Sharon to help polish your TBR presentation skills.

Upon the successful completion of this course, you will be licensed to deliver TBR to your own clients, customers, company, and country. You will join an exceptional group of global trainers when you become a Certified Trainer for “Training from the BACK of the Room!”

Learning Outcomes for this Certification Course:

After completing the prerequisites and actively participating in the course, and after presenting a live lesson in-class for instructor and peer review and feedback, you will be able to:

Deliver the 2-day train-the-trainer program “Training from the BACK of the Room” by using the official facilitator’s guide, slide set, and participant materials for this 2-day train-the-trainer class.

Teach others about Accelerated Learning, current brain science behind effective instruction, the “6 Trumps” (6 learning principles based on brain science), and the 4Cs training design and delivery model – all crucial components for successful, brain- based training.

Assist others in acquiring brain-based instructional and training skills.

Continually improve your own training skills by receiving ongoing feedback, encouragement, and coaching from your master training group of TBR Certified Trainers.

Receive one year of free coaching from Sharon Bowman, via email, phone, social media, or Skype.

Access a continuously updated digital database of resources: websites, slide presentations, books, articles, videos, and other sources related to effective, brain-based training.

Prerequisites for this Certification Course:

Completion of Sharon's 2-day train-the-trainer workshop "Training from the BACK of the Room!"

Completion of short writing assignments to demonstrate comprehension of concepts covered in the 2-day workshop (writing assignments will be sent upon registration).

Completion of assigned readings (list will be sent upon registration).

Creation of a short, written (or video-taped) lesson plan using a topic you teach and using the 4Cs lesson design "map" as your guide (specific lesson plan requirements will be sent upon registration; your plan will be posted on the TBR Ning community site for peer review and feedback).

To Earn this Training Certification, You Must:

Complete all required prerequisites.

Attend the 1-day certification course.

Present a short, live lesson in-class for instructor and peer review and feedback, and receive a passing score on the presentation assessment rubric.

Commit to being an active member of a master training group of TBR Certified Trainers – a group that supports its members with free online coaching, feedback, problem-solving, and encouragement.
